ROUTE INFORMATION

* Including public holidays

- B Buses replace this service ongoing. Go to the buses replacing trains stop

Public holidays

Special timetables apply on public holidays and over the Christmas & New Year period.

Matarawa and Maymorn Stations

Stop on request only. To get on, you must be visible on the platform. To get off, notify the crew.

Heading to Greytown on the weekend by train?

Where the service is operated by a train, passengers will need to transfer to a route 200 bus at Featherston. Where a train replacement bus is operated, the bus will drop off at Bus Stop 1822 Greytown - Main Street near 74.

Travelling with bikes

Bikes can be carried on most trains on a first-come, first-served basis. When folded, folding bikes and scooters are allowed on every train service. They must be secured at all times, must not block aisles or doorways, and not occupy a seat.

Travelling with a Mobility Aid

All Metlink trains are accessible to wheelchairs and mobility devices, with allocated parking areas and securing belts.

Buses replacing trains

Buses replacing trains on the Wairarapa line are coaches with stairs for boarding. Customers using a mobility aid can contact Metlink on 0800 801 700 to arrange an accessible alternative.

Bikes may only be carried if there is adequate capacity in the designated luggage area.

Buses replacing trains do not serve Matarawa Station. Please use Carterton Station.
